

THE MATH (B-SIDES)

DAYLIGHT TREMOR

Alan G © 2008

TERRACOTTA

Verse One

Your so precious to God, above
An oh so special breath of love
You're my winter's warmth
We're wrapped in eternity

Verse Two

You're a fragile child
Made from clay at the dawn of today
You're a fragile child
Breaking hearts and breaking bones

Verse Three

You're a fragile child
You make my world a little brighter

STALKERS

Verse One

You look down
The clouds fall beneath your feet
And as you tumble
Your shadow drowns me out
And I see nothing at all
And I'll sleep in the dust
And I hear nothing at all
And I'll rest in the dust

Chorus

Stalkers in the darkness
Plagues that destroy our midday
Stalkers in the darkest place
Plagues that destroy at midday

Verse Two

The light scatters around my bones
The tides coming down
Hold me now
I'm only 6ft under

Chorus

Stalkers in the darkness
Plagues that destroy our midday
Stalkers in the darkest place
Plagues that destroy at midday

Stalkers in the darkness
Plagues that destroy our midday
Stalkers in the darkest place
Plagues that destroy at midday

THE SPARKS AND NO ONE ELSE BUT ME

Verse One

And I'll breathe this air in
Now that it's not so thin
Archer in the storm
Wearing a crown of thorns

Chorus

It's brighter, than the sun the moon the stars
His fighter, on this frontline of ours

Verse Two

Would you walk away?
Would you sell, sell the world?
In exchange for a broken shell
Where everything is real

Chorus

And it's brighter, than the sun the moon the stars
His fighter, on this frontline of ours

Refrain

The sparks and no one else but me
The sparks and no one else but me
The sparks and no one else but me
The sparks and no one else but me

Outro

And I'll breathe this air in

SHELL SHOCK

Verse One

Cyanide winter
Over the hills
Cyanide winter
Over the hills

Verse Two

The sun was struck
And the stars were swept away
The sun was struck

Verse Three

Cyanide winter
Over the hills
Cyanide winter
Over the hills

ROBOT ENCORE

Verse One

You break down and cry
You see through the lies
You feel the storm outside
You'll run away tonight

Verse Two

You show us all the way
You light the stars, we pray
You rule over all
You joined eternal frays

Verse Three

You break down and cry
You know you're not alone
Now

PARK DARKER

Verse One

Going no where fast
Holding nothing that lasts
The days go bad
The days grow bad

Chorus

Runaway trains
Wait for me
Runaway trains
Wait for me

Verse Two

Digital bodies
With silicon minds
Fall off the table
What is mine?

Chorus

Runaway trains
Wait for me
Runaway trains
Wait for me
Runaway trains
Wait for me
Runaway trains
Wait for me

Outro

Wait for me
Wait for me
Wait for me
