Gently

Verse One

Your voice drifts in on the sea
It gently breaks my heart
Your voice drifts in on the sea
It only sounds like disaster to me

Verse Two

I would have given my life just for you
But you made them so clear
(all) those thoughts that I'd feared
I tried to get through, what didn't I do? (if only you knew)
But now I don't care, that your not there

Verse Three

Your voice drifts in on the sea
It gently breaks my heart
Your voice drifts in on the sea
It only sounds like any other to me

Hands

Verse One

Now that I am, now that I am gone
And the world rages, world rages on
I'll wait for, I'll wait for you
To let me down with the sweetest truth

Chorus

I'll find you, and when I do
I'll look your hands with mine
And together we'll pass the time

Verse Two

These tired eyes see their last goodbye
Shine on, shine on and on
Break like glass, break with the last tear
I'll hold this line I'll make it mine
Because

Chorus

I'll find you, and when I do
I'll look your hands with mine
And together we'll pass the time
And together we'll both shine

Torches

Verse One

The dew of the morning
Settles on your shoulders
Do you, keep forgetting
How special you are?

Chorus

You, you wonder, why oh why
These, reflections, are the colour of your eyes

Verse Two

High up above
You still love
To watch the clouds
Go by

Chorus

You, you wonder, why oh why

Refrain

Do you, keep forgetting?
Do you, keep forgetting?
Just how, special you are

Chorus

You, you wonder, why oh why
