Verse One

You were the only one to answer
When your name was upon my lips today

Chorus

You flew into my room
Sung the gray away
You flew in through the window
To play this day away

Versetwo

Now there's just no ending
Than us on the crest so far away
Now there's just no other beginning
Than the one we made today

Chorus

You flew into my room
And sung all the gray away
You flew in through the window
A star fell my way
You flew in through my window
Stole my heart away
